DUTY STATION: New Haven, CT

OPENING DATE: August 13, 2020
CLOSING DATE: Open until filled.
Preference given to applications received by September 4, 2020

*Depending on experience.

The United States District Court for the District of Connecticut is seeking an experienced Information Technology Technician to support the New Haven seat of court. The primary focus of this job is to provide in-person front line support to the Clerk's Office and Chambers staff, including: installing, troubleshooting, and training customers on software applications, supporting virtual desktop and portable computing hardware, diagnosing basic server and networking components, providing training and support of mobile devices, and supporting networked copiers and printers. Information Technology Technicians are expected to be professional and courteous subject matter experts able to discern the needs of their customers.

Travel throughout all three seats of court (Hartford, New Haven, and Bridgeport) will occasionally be required to assist other Information Technology department staff, provide helpdesk coverage, assist with projects, and to attend department meetings.

REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES:

- Provide prompt support to helpdesk service requests with a high degree of professionalism and accuracy;
- Meet established Service Level Agreements (SLA), maintain work log, and document resolutions thoroughly;
- Provide training and support for desktop and mobile computing hardware. Experience supporting virtual desktops (VDI) and Apple iOS devices is preferred;
- Provide tier one support for server and networking components with a firm understanding of core networking fundamentals;
- Provide support for networked copiers, printers, and high-speed scanners;
- Monitor critical infrastructure systems (power, temperature, log files, etc.);
- Assist with inventory control duties, including intake and excise of equipment;
- Prepare and maintain detailed technical documentation of department operating procedures, equipment maintenance, and hardware/software configurations. Must be able to prepare simplified instruction manuals of hardware and software for customers;
- Maintain composure in high stress situations;
- Participate in rotating on-call schedule; and
- Responsible for other duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS/ABILITIES:

The successful candidate must have leadership qualities which include the ability to:

- Collaborate and work effectively with all levels of court staff and other agencies.
- Communicate information clearly, accurately, and in a timely manner.
- Organize time and work effectively.
- Exercise good judgment and show initiative.

Attention to detail and analytical skills are a must. Responding to competing priorities, maintaining confidentiality, and handling sensitive matters with tact is essential. Work is performed in an office setting. Lifting of boxes and moving equipment is required; therefore, the incumbent must be able to lift up to 50 pounds and must be able to sit and or stand for extended periods of time. This position requires frequent mobility.
