September 18, 2015 – The National Association of Women Judges, District 2 (New York, Connecticut and Vermont), will honor and celebrate the contributions of the federal judiciary by honoring recently retired Judge Ellen Bree Burns for her 40 years of judicial service. Chief Justice Chase Rogers will speak at the Saturday, September 26 brunch to be held at The Graduate Club in New Haven, Connecticut from 11 am – 1 pm.

“Judge Burns is an extraordinary person. As an exemplary judge, she was a pioneer and role model for the bench, the bar, and for women in public service. She has been an inspiration and mentor to female attorneys and judges alike,” said Hon. Mary Sommer, NAWJ State Chair for Connecticut.
