

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF CONNECTICUT

PUBLIC NOTICE APPOINTMENT OF NEW MAGISTRATE JUDGE (August 22, 2017)

The Judicial Conference of the United States has authorized the appointment of a full-time United States magistrate judge for the District of Connecticut at New Haven, Connecticut. The essential function of courts is to dispense justice. An important component of this function is the creation and maintenance of diversity in the court system. A community's belief that a court dispenses justice is heightened when the court reflects the community's racial, ethnic, and gender diversity.

The current annual salary for this position is $188,692, and the term of office is eight years. The position will become available effective May 1, 2018.

The duties of the position are demanding and wide-ranging and will include: (1) conducting most preliminary proceedings in criminal cases, including but not limited to search warrants, criminal complaints, bond matters, and pretrial motion hearings; (2) conducting settlement conferences in civil cases; (3) trial and disposition of misdemeanor cases; (4) conducting various pretrial matters and evidentiary proceedings on referral from a district judge; and (5) trial and disposition of civil cases upon consent of the litigants. The basic authority of a United States magistrate judge is specified in 28 U.S.C. § 636.

To be qualified for appointment an applicant must:

1. Be, and have been for at least five years, a member in good standing of the bar of the highest court of a state, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Territory of Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, and have been engaged in the active practice of law for a period of at least five years (with some substitutes authorized);
2. Be competent to perform all the duties of the office; be of good moral character; be emotionally stable and mature; be committed to equal justice under the law; be in good health; be patient and courteous; and be capable of deliberation and decisiveness;
3. Be less than 70 years old; and
4. Not be related to a judge of the District Court of Connecticut.

A merit selection panel composed of attorneys and other members of the community will review all applicants and recommend to the district judges in confidence the five persons it considers best qualified. The court will make the appointment following an FBI full-field investigation and an IRS tax check of the applicant selected by the court for appointment. The individual selected must comply with the financial disclosure requirements pursuant to the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, Pub. L. No. 95-521, 90 Stat. 1824 (1978) (codified at 5 U.S.C. app. 4 §§ 101-111) as implemented by the Judicial Conference of the United States.
