Re: United States Fish & Wildlife Forfeiture of Collateral Schedule

Dear Chief Judge Chatigny:

On September 9, 1987, this Court adopted a "General Order of Offenses Related to The United States Fish & Wildlife Service" establishing a forfeiture of collateral schedule by which a violator may pay a fine in lieu of appearing in court. The criminal laws and regulations governing Fish and Wildlife violations, found in Title 50 of the Code of Federal Regulations and Titles 16 and 18 of the United States Code, have undergone numerous revisions during the past seventeen years and there are several violations not covered by the existing fine schedule. Furthermore, as you know, inflation has significantly impacted the dollar, greatly diminishing the deterrent effect of the current fine list.

Accordingly, it is respectfully requested that the attached updated fine schedule for such offenses in the District of Connecticut be approved and adopted.

If you have any questions or desire to discuss this matter further, agents from the Fish & Wildlife Service and I would be happy to meet with you.

Very Truly Yours,

Kevin J. O'Connor
United States Attorney
